A BETTER WORLD IS POSSIBLE

Not only is it possible, it is essential ... Fortunately, humanity is clearly leading towards that goal that we can not ignore... beyond the giant difficulties that humanity faces every day, beyond the anguish and despair that so often generates the very long way that we still have to go...

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

We human beings usually interpret our environment based on a “here and now” ... this limited point of view leads us to that hopelessness, and in some places or times, to considering that we are going backwards. But by interpreting the evolution of humanity as a whole and observing its comparative evolution over decades, we have undoubtedly moved further forward than back.

We are ALL responsible. Small actions by millions of people are the fundamental part of the change. Humanity is the sum of everything... your actions, mine, our neighbours', the decision-making politician's, the sum of all actions forms our path to the future.

Each according to our ability, each in our position... from the basic worker who understands the need to save resources (no longer for the company, but for this world that must be sustainable), to the entrepreneur who understands that leadership (political, social, business, journalistic...) has to be exercised with talent, knowledge and ethics. We must all work to build a better world, each in our own responsibility and to the extent of our ability; the leader deserves the trust of those he leads only if there is ethics and a search for justice in his decisions.

Too often the “model” shown to us in society is that of the politician, businessman or human being who have never deserved to get where they are; it is that of individuals who have prioritised their particular interest over the group.

I believe that as human beings we must understand the need to INSPIRE and to give an example of actions that can be followed by others. Perhaps in an erroneous concept of “ethics” many of us have believed that certain actions must be taken, but not shown... without realising that by doing this we show no path, we give up inspiring and renounce leading by example.

Companies are the engines of the economy; we must therefore also be the engines of change.

As people we have the responsibility to teach, to seek to inspire, to point out possible paths to other companies or people who share our path.

If you want to change the world... your actions, added to those of millions of other human beings, will be what makes it possible for us to gradually achieve that goal.

Since the creation of our foundation in April 2011, 124 projects and 32 emergency actions have been supported in a total of 27 countries, with 202,345 direct beneficiaries in the funded projects.

As General Manager of the Europa Mundo Vacaciones company and President of its Foundation, I am proud to present the 2018 Report to you.

ACTIVITIES

WHAT IS THE EUROPAMUNDO FOUNDATION. ALLIANCE BETWEEN NGO AND COMPANY

EUROPAMUNDO FOUNDATION (FEM) is a private, non-profit organisation with its own legal character and full capacity to act. The will of its creators, Europamundo Vacaciones (EMV), is to realise the purposes of general interest set out in its statutes.

FEM works to promote coexistence and understanding between cultures seeking a more tolerant and diverse world, by favouring the use and enrichment of the cultural heritage of humanity and especially fostering tourist awareness among the peoples of the world as a strategy of development through Sustainable Tourism. With the Global Compact, it works for the elimination of poverty, the fight against climate change and the reduction of inequality, through the United Nations 2030 Agenda, its 17 Sustainable Development Goals and the 169 associated goals. With the UNWTO, it collaborates in the ST-EP initiative (Responsible and Sustainable Tourism for the Elimination of Poverty) created at the World Summit on Sustainable Development in Johannesburg in 2002.

This Foundation is mainly funded by its parent company EMV and the employees of Europamundo Vacaciones through its Operators, Suppliers, Travel Agents, Partners and Personnel of the Company, as well as indirectly through all of the passengers on the circuits of Europamundo Vacaciones. Europamundo Vacaciones allocates 2 euros to its Foundation for each passenger that does an EMV circuit, to support the projects of the NGOs that are presented in the annual call.

Through its Foundation, Europamundo Vacaciones launches its eighth call for the 2018 FEM Fund, in September 2018, a social fund aimed at supporting activities to improve the living conditions of people by collaborating in creating a more sustainable, diverse and tolerant world.

It is in the FEM's general interest to carry out activities of social action and cooperation for the development of particularly vulnerable zones and sectors of the population, both in Spain and in other countries, and to promote sustainable human development.

The bases of the call detail the criteria and requirements that the Europamundo Foundation Evaluation Committee considers in awarding of economic subsidies to the different projects presented. The amount that the Europamundo Fund put aside for this purpose was €243,900.

<https://www.europamundo.com/fundacion/convocatorias.aspx>

The Evaluation Committee formed at the request of the General Manager of Europamundo Vacaciones S.L. is responsible for choosing the beneficiaries, among all the projects received each year in the call made in September, of the Europamundo Foundation Fund, and which are financed and carried out in the year after the call.

PROJECTS

Following its main strategic line of action, which is the financing of projects, the Europamundo Foundation launches an annual call with a project selection process. Their subsequent funding over a year through the development of the project life cycle, which is described below.

Project life cycle.

A summary is made of the phases of the project presented to the annual call of the Europamundo Foundation.

- Call. We start with the Call made on 1 September every year.
- Reception of the Call. The entities, NGOs, have to deliver the projects before 30 September on the provided template number 1 “fund application”, template no. 2 “project description” and no. 3 “project budget”.
- Valuation of the projects. From 1 October until 31 January, the Evaluation Committee meets to assess the projects received.
- Notification of selected and non-selected projects. On 1 February, the projects selected and not selected are notified to the social entities.

Several documents are sent to the Entities of the selected projects: letter of acceptance, form with the bank account data signed by the entity and the bank, monitoring report form, final report form and informative document on the “project life”.

The entities that have to rearrange their projects are given 10 days to do so; they send the rearranged project and the Evaluation Committee decides.

- Letter of acceptance. After 15 days of sending the acceptance letter and bank data, the first 50% of the amount awarded for the project is sent by bank transfer.
- They have a time of 2 months to start the Project.
- Follow-up report. Six months after the project begins, the entity sends us the follow-up report and, after positive evaluation by the Evaluation Committee, the second 50% of the amount awarded for the project is delivered.

The follow-up report is a report on the performance of the project and the achievement of the planned objectives, and this and the expenses must be made approximately 50%.

- Final report. The follow-up report is a report on the performance of the project and the achievement of the planned objectives, and this and the expenses must be made approximately 50%.

The final report is detailed in two aspects: the technical with the activities carried out and the goals achieved according to the project, and an economic analysis with the detail of the expenditure and the bills justifying the expense.

- Field trip. Between the follow-up report and the final report, a field trip could be made to the project through some of the collaborators, colleagues from the office or guides of Europamundo Vacaciones, the parent company of the Europamundo Foundation, who may be close to the area where the project is made.
- Evaluation. One of the members of the Evaluation Committee assesses the Project through his final report.

The analysis is technical, to verify the objectives reached according to the original project, and economic to verify the expenditure made and the invoices justifying said expense.

- Communication. The project is assessed and the result is sent to the entity through a report.

The total time that these phases of the project takes is close to 2 years.

In the projects that are not of continuity, a periodic check of the sustainability of the project will be made over time, by contacting the entity that drew it up and carried it out.

Project selection process

The awarding procedure will be by comparing the applications submitted in time and the terms and conditions of the fund with a criterion of priority between them, and those achieving the highest score will be awarded, according to the criteria established in the fund terms and conditions.

QUANTITATIVE ASSESSMENT CRITERIA AND SCORE.

The assessment and scoring, up to a maximum of 100 points, will be made according to the following criteria:

1. Assessment criteria and weighting of the same, of the REQUESTING ENTITIES up to a maximum of 15 points.
2. Assessment criteria and weighting of the same, of the REQUESTED PROJECTS up to a maximum of 85 points.
3. The evaluation committee may apply qualitative criteria, complementing the quantitative, for the selection of those projects they understand to be important, necessary or sustainable over time for their Foundation.

Collaboration agreements

PASOS COOPERACIÓN

Europamundo Vacaciones has renewed the collaboration agreement with the NGO Pasos Cooperación to finance a project of a network of community health volunteers in the Tounfite region, in the Midelt province in the Moroccan Atlas.

The aim is to influence the health of the population of isolated villages without health posts in the Central High Atlas Tounfite Circle at an altitude of between 1800 and 2300 metres, by maintaining a network of “base houses” equipped with health kits for urgent attention, manned by health volunteers.

This project is developed in the Central High Atlas in the villages of the valleys between Tounfite and Imilchil (communes of Agoudim, Sidi Yahya and Anemzi, province of Midelt). It is a high mountain region, with a population of Amazigh language and culture, with an agro-pastoral subsistence economy (agricultural crops and grazing of goats and sheep), although there is a small rural tourism activity, very little developed (also subsistence). There is a very high degree of illiteracy, which is more than 90% in women. There are villages up to 2,200 m altitude, and the climate is very cold in winter, with heavy snowfall that often isolates the population.

The duration of the project is one year beginning in October 2017 and ending in September 2018

ECODES (ECOLOGY AND DEVELOPMENT FOUNDATION).

The purpose of this agreement for business collaboration in activities of general interest is to offset 3,937 tons of CO<sub>2</sub> through a CeroCO<sub>2</sub> compensation project.

The project through which the compensation will be carried out is “CommuniTree-Re-forestación comunitaria en Limay “Nicaragua”. The Limay Community Carbon Project is a community reforestation initiative that brings together small farmers in Nicaragua to reforest parts of their disused lands, promoted by the NGO Taking Root. The compensation project has a cost of €10/tCO<sub>2</sub>eq. And in 2018 they planted around 15,000 trees.

Partners of the ST-EP programme

In recent years the Europamundo Foundation has signed a collaboration agreement with the World Tourism Organisation (UNWTO) to develop projects through the ST-EP (Sustainable Tourism Eliminating Poverty) Programme.

As a result of this support, the Europamundo Foundation has participated as a partner in the ST-EP programme and in its Tourism and Poverty Alleviation projects since 2012.

step.unwto.org/es/content/socios-st-ep

Who are the partners of the ST-EP programme?

Many ST-EP activities would not have been possible without the valuable contribution of several countries and institutions. The Government of the Republic of Korea was a pioneering partner in launching the ST-EP Initiative, offering an initial contribution to host and establish the UNWTO ST-EP Foundation in Seoul. Since then, significant progress has been made in consolidating and expanding public-private partnerships for the ST-EP Initiative.

Additional support from governments, development agencies and other organisations will allow the UNWTO to continue expanding the ST-EP Initiative and develop tourism for the benefit of the most disadvantaged.
